AMERICAN ARMY HOLD VERA CRUZ

Navy Turns the Mexic Port Over to Funston's Brigade. Natives Gaze in Wonder at the Brown-Clad Soldiers.

Vera Cruz, April 30.—The task of guarding the city of Vera Cruz and its environs was taken over from the navy today by Brigadier General Funston and the Fifth Infantry brigade of the United States army.

While martial law still continues in force the actual municipal government is being conducted by Robert J. Kerr, the American civil governor, who has enlisted the aid of Mexican officials to act under his superintendence and in accordance with Mexican laws.

After a morning session by the marching and the large bodies of American soldiers, sailors and marines, the city resumed its normal and somewhat sleepy daily life. The evening, however, was made gay by outdoor dinner parties at the cafes and restaurants, accompanied by music and sometimes by dancing.

The Troops Disembark.—The American troops began their disembarkation from the transports at an early hour in the morning. Once on shore, they were lined up along the docks and in the railroad yards and before noon all had marched to the posts assigned to them in various parts of the city and outlying suburbs.

As the various detachments swung into the streets, their flags flying and their hallicorns came out into the sidewalks and gazed with undisturbed wonder at the solid ranks of the brown-clad men. The people seemed to marvel at the precision of the American soldiers' movements and their sturdy appearance.

Many American civilians who had been taking their breakfast outdoors left their tables and watched with pride the passing of the newly arrived troops, shouting voices of "hurrah" and waving hats or handkerchiefs at them.

Shortly after the last of the troops had passed through the central streets, with several aides, drove by in a carriage and was greeted with an outburst of applause.

When the men took up their stations and the reports had been received by Brigadier General Funston, official calls were exchanged between Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger, Governor Robert J. Kerr and Brigadier General Funston.

Order by Admiral Fletcher.—Later in the day an order was issued by Rear Admiral Fletcher, who had been in command of the American naval forces, that the American navy take the landing of the American troops and the city and read the whole of the events since the taking of the city and read the whole of the events since the taking of the city.

The naval forces occupying the city of Vera Cruz will at 2 p. m., April 30, withdraw and turn the command of the city over to the United States army.

The navy landed at 11 o'clock a. m., April 29, 1914. From shore after their landing the men were ordered to land on the morning of the 30th.

At that time, when all organized authority in the city of Vera Cruz had been withdrawn, the order was given to the United States army to land on the morning of the 30th.

The brigade, under the command of Captain William H. Clegg, United States army, landed at 11 o'clock a. m., April 30, 1914. From shore after their landing the men were ordered to land on the morning of the 30th.

Work of Nine Days.—"In nine days" the city of Vera Cruz was occupied by the United States army and the city was in the hands of the United States army.

Knowledge and Integrity

are two things that must enter into the optical business. Combining these two with high-grade workmanship, careful attention, honest dealings, and the grinding of the greater portion of prescriptions written for glasses by our better oculists, has fully demonstrated the fact that there is something indescribable about the way in which we conduct our business that few opticians have been able to understand. We know when glasses are suited to your eyes, and if you need the service of an oculist we will so advise, but positively will not accept your money without satisfaction from us. Just ask anybody if this is true.

ATLANTA CHOIRS WILL HAVE ALL-DAY SINGING

Grand opera is all right for those who have the price and time to attend, but unfortunately not all are so blessed. So for the pleasure and inspiration of lovers of vocal music, especially of the old-time variety, the East Side Tabernacle choir has invited the various choirs of the city which make up the Atlanta Singing convention to hold an all-day session at the East Side church Sunday. The majority of these choirs have responded to the invitation. Dinner will be served all who attend. The choir will be carried by the large crowds expected to carry the large choir. Among the choirs to be present are Cooper street, Western Heights, and other noted choirs. Several orchestras and eminent soloists will be featured of the program. The last year's convention was held at Buckhead and was attended by several thousand people.

RAILWAYS NEED MONEY, SAYS LOUIS BRANDELS

Efficiency Apostle Says More Revenue Must Come, But Opposes Rate Advance.

Washington, April 30.—That the net income and operating expenses of the eastern railroads are "smaller than the cost of the property and the welfare of the community" was announced as a conclusion today by Louis D. Brandeis, of the supreme court, in a speech before the Interstate Commerce commission, in the 5 per cent advance rate case. He maintained, however, that to make a horizontal advance in all freight rates as proposed by the railroads was illegal and beyond the powers of the commission.

Mr. Brandeis said steps should be taken as soon as possible to increase the carriers' revenues, and suggested that testimony given at the commission's hearings had shown how that might be done without advancing rates. He referred to the elimination of special allowances to shippers, cross-car spotting and other free services now performed by the roads.

Just before Mr. Brandeis submitted his conclusions, Clifford Thorne, of Iowa, representing dissenting views, made a strong opposition to the proposed advance, and completed an elaborate argument. He maintained that the carriers have been making more net income during the last four years than in any previous four years in their history.

He maintained not only that the railroads were receiving adequate revenues and making a fair return on their stock, but that their credit was as good or better than that of other industries, as proved by their ability to dispose of hundreds of millions of securities during the last four years.

William A. Glasgow, Jr., of Philadelphia, counsel for dissent and coal producers, declared that such an advance of freight rate as proposed was a matter of public policy, and should be dealt with only by the congress, and that the railroads had no power to authorize or sanction a horizontal advance, its authority being limited to the determination of the reasonableness of particular rates after hearing all the facts. He urged that the reasonableness of particular rates could not be determined merely by a showing that the roads needed more revenue.

Judge Henderson, of the Iowa railway commission, argued against the proposed increase from the standpoint of the independent producers in Iowa of starch, glucose, distillers, corn oil, etc., and there had been no evidence offered by the carriers that the present rates are unreasonable.

Washington, April 30.—An Indian Brahmin, T. H. Bhutta, Khyber, India, has offered to settle on all the arid lands west of the right to purchase after a period of years, would make those lands blossom Utopia-like.

He opposed the Congress bill for Hindu exclusion, except as to students, and he said that the India laborers ought to be allowed to come in, assimilate American ideas and go back home to help their motherland progress.

FEDERAL TROOPS IN COLORADO

As Soon as Regulars Reach Strike Zone the Warfare Ceases—Strikers Are Returning to Their Homes.

Denver, Colo., April 30.—With federal troops on the ground, conditions were quiet today in the Colorado strike zone. State troops are being relieved by the regulars and the strikers are said to be dispersing. The federal soldiers now patrolling the Front county district and regular troops superseded the militiamen at Walsenburg tonight. Regulars will occupy the Ludlow district tomorrow and the national guardmen from both Walsenburg and Ludlow are expected to reach Denver by tomorrow night.

The strikers have surrendered no arms either to the militia or the federal troops. Leaders tonight were going among the hills of southern Colorado, urging the men to disperse and return to their homes, but according to John Lawson, international board member of the United Mine Workers of America, they have not been told to give up their weapons.

"Men in all walks of life fought with the militia," Lawson explained, "but they will not oppose the federal troops. They would not have opposed the militia or the gunmen affiliated with them. Now they are returning to their homes. The federal troops at Ludlow and Forbes will be relieved by the regulars."

"The guns are the property of our men," Lawson added, "and so far as I know they will keep them." The immediate withdrawal of state troops from the strike zone and the speedy disarmament of mine guards are among the conditions named by the union leaders.

The governor's office it was said an appeal for help had been received from Sheriff McAfee, of Weld county, the mines in the vicinity of the town of Louisville. 120 militiamen still in at Louisville.

Three miners from Routt county reported to Governor Ammons today that every man employed at the Oxbow mine near Steamboat Springs had received a threatening letter. No troops are stationed there.

REGULARS ARRIVE AND WAR CEASES.
April 30.—The strike zone tonight strikers and guards were being relieved by regular troops. Colorado for ten days laid aside the rules and regulations of the law because Major W. W. Holbrook, commanding the Second Cavalry, brought some 200 regulars to Trinidad early today and announced that he was here to restore peace.

"We are not here to take sides between the strikers and their former employers," Major Holbrook said, "we are here to restore order. I have to declare that the use of arms is a warning to the strikers and I am confident they will not be permitted to use arms against the federal troops."

Major Holbrook admitted that negotiations had been opened in the past with the disarmament of the strikers. He declined, however, to reveal the exact nature of the negotiations or the success with which they had been attended.

Asked if the mine guards would be disarmed he said:

"The guards, of course, cannot be disarmed just at present, with the property of the company in the hands of the strikers. However, the guards will be restricted. The guards will be permitted to protect the property of the company, but they will not be permitted to shoot the miners or to take sides."

The major said he would visit the Ludlow district tomorrow in company with the national guardmen to determine whether or not the strikers would be permitted to take sides in the dispute.

He also explained that martial law had not been proclaimed, but that the federal troops were exercising their functions.

ACTION IS URGED
Washington, April 30.—Urging it was high time for the senate to take steps to end the Colorado strike, the Colorado mine owners' association today urged the senate to take action.

MR. TULL G. WATERS FAILS TO EXPLAIN

To the Voters of Fulton County: Mr. Waters fails to explain his withdrawal of convicts from important PUBLIC work and assigning them to the construction of a boulevard through the 200-acre farm of General Clifford L. Anderson (his chum on the county board) where they are now at work. They have to travel four miles from their camp to get to the boulevard and four miles back to camp, making a daily round trip which consumes one-fourth of their time.

Hasn't General Anderson about gotten his share of boulevards and avenues at the county's expense without Mr. Waters throwing in this one for good measure during the general's farewell year on the county board?

Instead of paving Whitehall street where it was recently regarded this street being the main artery on the south side; instead of paving Cherokee avenue, which borders Grant park; instead of resurfacing Ponce de Leon avenue, which is in a dreadful condition; instead of going ahead with the Butler street and Highland avenue sewer, and with the Ormond street sewer, which are menacing the health of large and populous sections of the city—

Instead of attending to these vitally important public improvements, Mr. Waters has scattered the convicts hither and yon in small groups, accomplishing no real results for the general public benefit, in an obvious wholesale attempt to catch votes.

What is his explanation?

Mr. Waters this year voted to pay Warren Bros. $47 per ton for asphalt, when last year asphalt was bought by the county for $26 per ton and less.

Mr. Waters as a county commissioner and chairman of the board is now advocating the employment of an employee of Warren Bros. as the county's asphalt paving expert, at $250 per month, when last year he bitterly opposed the employment of an INDEPENDENT asphalt expert.

Why is Mr. Waters so partial to Warren Bros.?

Mr. Waters contemptuously refers to the real estate men of Atlanta as "land gamblers."

This being his opinion of them, why does Mr. Waters at the same time put on the 1914 program the laying of 12,000 feet of water pipe at the county's expense to a subdivision owned by a private syndicate, the head of which is actively supporting him?

Respectfully,
OSCAR MILLS.
